

Prof. Dr. Ben Steinbrück, MJur (Oxford) is a partner at SZA Schilling, Zütt & Anschütz in Frankfurt am Main and Mannheim, Germany, Ambassador for Germany for the Vienna International Arbitral Centre (VIAC) and an honorary professor at Trier University, Germany, where he teaches courses on international arbitration and international commercial law.

Ben Steinbrück acts for parties in complex disputes in domestic and international arbitration proceedings and before state courts and regularly sits as an arbitrator. He has particular experience in DIS, ICC, VIAC, Swiss Rules and ad hoc arbitration in commercial disputes and in post-M&A, shareholder and other corporate disputes. He also advises clients on issues of conflicts of laws and civil procedure.

Ben Steinbrück holds a Magister Juris (MJur) degree from the University of Oxford and a Doctor iuris (Ph.D. in law) from the University of Cologne.

Ben Steinbrück has authored numerous publications on international arbitration, litigation, conflicts of laws and corporate law and regularly speaks on these topics. He is ranked as a top expert in his fields of expertise in guides such as Chambers, Lexology/WWL, Legal 500 and Juve.

Contact: SZA Schilling, Zütt & Anschütz Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH
Otto-Beck-Str. 11
68165 Mannheim, Germany
T: +49 621 4257 219
E: Ben.Steinbrueck@sza.de