

Borna Dejanović specialises in arbitration and litigation, regularly serving as lead and co-counsel in high-profile commercial, construction, and investment arbitration proceedings.

He has a strong track record of successfully assisting clients with the recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards. In addition to his arbitration practice, Borna is a trusted strategist for clients in cross-border commercial disputes, handling complex court litigation, enforcement, and bankruptcy matters. His expertise also includes sophisticated administrative disputes and intricate white-collar crime cases.

Beyond the courtroom, Borna has gained extensive experience in diverse commercial, regulatory, and administrative challenges, including transactions and large-scale projects.

Borna is the ambassador of the Vienna International Arbitral Centre for Croatia, as well as an active member of the Commission for Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution with ICC Croatia, Young European Federation for Investment Law and Arbitration, Young Croatian Arbitration Practitioners, Arbitration Association of Central and Eastern Europe, as well as the Croatian Competition Law and Policy Association.

Contact: Mr. Borna Dejanović
 Wolf Theiss Croatia
 A: Ivana Lučića 2A, 10000 Zagreb, Croatia
 M: +385 99 7320 176
 E: borna.dejanovic@wolftheiss.com
 W: <https://www.wolftheiss.com/lawyer/borna-dejanovic/>