

Doğuhan Uygun is the counsel specialises in international arbitration, arbitration-related court proceedings, commercial litigations, product liability cases, bankruptcy proceedings, dispute resolution matters as well as interim relief measures.

Doğuhan Uygun is an active trial lawyer and experience appearing before arbitral tribunals, civil courts, commercial courts, administrative courts, the Regional Appellate Court and the Court of Appeal. He has extensively advised and represented international and local clients from a wide-range of industries on complex commercial and contractual disputes, shareholders disputes, enforcement of foreign court judgments and arbitral awards, intellectual property disputes, unfair competition lawsuits and bankruptcy proceedings before arbitral tribunals and all degrees of courts. In addition, he has successfully represented the defendants on several criminal, administrative and regulatory investigations. He is an accredited mediator and also acts as arbitrator and in local and international arbitration proceedings.

Doğuhan Uygun is a member of the Istanbul Bar Association and an active member of the international arbitration community. He is the author of a book titled Dominance through Shareholding Rights under Group of Companies and numerous publications subjecting different issues mainly on commercial arbitration and litigation.

Contact:                    Doğuhan Uygun
M | +90 530 171 4606
E | iduygun@paksoy.av.tr