

Dr. Florian Wagner is a Dispute Resolution practitioner at Gleiss Lutz, based in Frankfurt, Germany. He focuses on financial litigation and arbitration, such as disputes related to M&A transactions or joint venture disputes. He also has experience in handling complex mass damages cases and in disputes at the interface of antitrust as well as insolvency law. He particularly enjoys advising in cross-border cases and works as arbitrator as well.

Florian is a member of the executive committee of member the German-American Lawyers' Association (DAJV) and a member of the German Arbitration Institute (DIS) as well as the Initiative of Young Arbitration Lawyers (DIS 40). He also co-founded the Frankfurt Disputes Circle, a networking and event series for the Frankfurt disputes community. In one of Germany's leading rankings, he is described as „thorough, very smart and pleasant”.

Florian holds a doctoral degree from the University of Giessen (summa cum laude).
