

Matthew T. Adams is a U.S. Attorney currently serving as a research assistant at Gleiss Lutz.

Matthew is working on dispute resolution team in Stuttgart, dealing with international commercial arbitrations and investor-state dispute resolution, while also engaging in editorial work, publication, and academic writing.

Matthew studied as an undergraduate at the University of South Carolina (B.S., Political Science; German 2019) before attending and graduating with honors from the University of North Carolina School of Law (J.D., 2025), where he served on the North Carolina Law Review, Holderness Moot Court, and the North Carolina Start-up Legal Clinic. Having worked with Gleiss Lutz throughout law school, he began his career there after graduating. Matthew was admitted to the North Carolina Bar in 2025.

Matthew is co-assistant editor of Happ/Wilske (eds.), ICSID Rules and Regulations 2022 – Article-by-Article Commentary (2nd ed. Forthcoming in 2026). He is also on the editorial team of the Transatlantic Law Journal.

Contact: Gleiss Lutz
 Lautenschlagerstr. 21
 70713 Stuttgart, Germany
 T: +49 711 8997-152
 F: +49 711 855096
 E: matthew.adams-gng@gleisslutz.com
 www.gleisslutz.com