

Roland Ziadé is the global co-head of international arbitration and a partner at Linklaters, based in Paris. He is a member of the Paris, New York, and Beirut Bars. He is also a member of the Board of the LCIA, the past President of the ICC-France Committee on the selection and appointment of arbitrators, a member of the Court of the Saudi Center for Commercial Arbitration (SCCA), and is included on the ICSID list of arbitrators. He is also co-chair of the ICC Advanced Academy for Middle East.

Roland has acted as counsel in approximately one hundred international arbitration cases (including ICC, UNCITRAL, LCIA, ICSID, AAA, SCC, OHADA, PCA, and ad hoc) and has represented and advised private companies (from the United States of America, Europe, Asia, the Middle East and Africa), states, and international organizations. He has also acted as arbitrator in over fifty international arbitrations (ICC, LCIA, ICSID, UNCITRAL, SIAC, SCC, Swiss Chambers, DIAC, DIFC-LCIA, AFA, CRCICA, CCJA etc.). He was a member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration for nine years and is the current Vice-President of the ICC Court Alumni Group. He is also a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR, the Executive Committee of the Foundation for International Arbitration Advocacy, the Bureau of the French Arbitration Committee, the Executive Committee of the Harvard Club of France, as well as numerous other arbitral organizations and arbitration working groups.

Roland Ziadé teaches arbitration at Université de Paris II-Assas, Université de Paris Saclay-Versailles as well as at Sciences Po Paris, and is the author of numerous publications and articles on international arbitration. He is highly rated for his experience and expertise in arbitration by Chambers Global, The International Who's Who on Commercial Arbitration, as well as the Guide to the World's Leading Experts in Commercial Arbitration. Since 2020, he has been named by Who's Who Legal (now the Lexology Index) among the top fifteen Global Elite Thought Leaders in international arbitration.

Roland holds law degrees from Harvard Law School (LLM Fullbright Scholar), the University of Paris I Sorbonne Law School, and the University of Paris II Assas Law School. He speaks English, French, and Arabic.

Contact: Roland Ziadé
 Linklaters LLP
 T: +33 1 56 43 28 34
 M: +33 6 22 48 88 02
 E: roland.ziade@linklaters.com
 <https://www.linklaters.com/roland-ziade/>