

Mag. Sarah Yvonne Enzi is an Associate at CERHA HEMPEL, where she is focusing primarily on arbitration and litigation. Sarah studied at the University of Graz, where she obtained her law degree (Mag. iur, 2025) and worked as a student assistant at the Institute for Civil Law, Foreign and Private International Law.

During her studies, Sarah participated in and acted as a coach in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot. These experiences formed the foundation for her subsequent engagement with the field of arbitration and fostered a profound and enduring interest in the subject.

At CERHA HEMPEL, she regularly advises clients in high-profile commercial arbitration mandates and is recognized for her great language skills and her deep understanding of international disputes. Furthermore, she also frequently acts as an administrative secretary for many arbitration cases.

Her working languages are English and German.
