

Tamara Manasijevic is an attorney-at-law with the arbitration boutique ARP in Vienna. She acts as arbitrator and counsel in domestic and international commercial arbitration.

Tamara has participated in more than 30 arbitration proceedings in various roles, including as arbitrator, counsel and tribunal secretary, under different rules such as the ICC, VIAC, UNCITRAL, and the Zagreb Rules. Her experience spans construction and engineering disputes (notably under the FIDIC Books), energy disputes (including oil, gas, electricity, renewables, and the liberalisation of the European energy market), sanctions-related matters, M&A and corporate disputes, joint ventures, and disputes arising from a wide range of commercial agreements, across nearly 20 legal systems.

Tamara holds a law degree from the University of Rijeka and an LL.M. from the University of Vienna. She is admitted to the Bar in Croatia and registered as an EU lawyer in Austria.

She is a founding member and a current Board member of the Arbitration Association of Central and Eastern Europe (ArbCEE).
